RATEPAYERS ELECT COUNCIL FOR 1928

A steady stream of citizens filed down to the office of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Village on Monday to cast their ballot in favor of their choice of councillors for the year 1928. There were four names on the ballot this year: Messrs. J. A. MacDonald, S. J. Garrett, W. A. Braisher and L. Castiglione. Mayor McLeod declined to act this year and the two former were members of last years council. The polls were open from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. and in all 124 ballots were cast, there being no spoiled ballots.

The count was as follows:
S.J. Garrett 117
J. A. MacDonald 109
W. A. Braisher 82
L. Castiglione 64

Mr. Garrett, polling the highest number of votes would, by act, be the Reeve of the Village for 1928, although this office will not be definitely decided till the first meeting of the new council, which will be held sometime after March 1st, when the new council takes office. At this meeting if Mr. Garrett declines to sit in the mayoralty chair the councillors will then elect their own reeve.

This year there were quite a number of additional names on the list, the renters paying business tax being given a vote.

We received a letter from H. M. Thorburn, who recently moved from Strathmore, but is now proprietor of the hotel at Legal, and he sends his best regards to his old friends: "I saw by last week's Chronicle that the Old Timers had a very nice time. Would have liked to have been there. Give my kind regards to all the boys in Carbon."

The leap year is pretty hard on girls. One came 65 miles to see her sweet heart. When she wanted to go home he did not even take the privilege of escorting her to the station; so she had to phone all over the neighborhood to get someone to take her and finally found a married man to act as escort. ## Eight Years Of World Service

With the conclusion of the Great War and the assembling of the Peace Conference, a new chapter was written in the history of this old world when the League of Nations was formed and the Covenant of the League written. By that act a new conception, a new ideal of international relationships and obligations came into being.

On January 8th last, the League of Nations observed its eighth anniversary, and although eight years is but as a fleeting second in the life of the world, there is interest and value in glancing back over that brief period and seeking to measure the usefulness of the League and in endeavoring to find an answer to the question whether it is worth while, and whether there is to be found in its brief history the seeds of permanence.

The general opinion of the press of the world is that, while the League has not accomplished all that was hoped for it, nor realized the extravagant hopes of its most enthusiastic supporters, neither have the doleful prophecies of the skeptics of 1920 been fulfilled.

The League has not yet succeeded in making the world safe from the menacing shadow of future wars, although it has been instrumental in mediating at least six disputes, any one of which might have developed into world war. On the other hand, it has confounded all the dire prophecies that it would quickly collapse in a welter of quarrels and recriminations. Instead, it stands stronger today than at any previous period in its short history.

From its inception, the programme of the League has had two main objects—two great principles which, from the first, it has sought to establish—the extension of international law, and the settlement of international disputes by arbitration. It has done much to secure acceptance by all nations of these principles. But that is not the sum total of its accomplishments. To quote Lord Cecil:

"It has improved international intercourse, it has struck some effective blows at grave social evils, it has rescued some hundreds of thousands of men, women and children from captivity or starvation, it has done something to restore the economic situation in Europe, it has succoured states floundering in a financial morass."

The League has yet to achieve its highest purpose, its greatest task, the attainment of a position which ought to destroy war. If it has, as yet, failed in that, if disarmament is still a dream and war still a dreadful possibility, the reason is not far to seek. The London Daily Herald, Labor, states the position when it says:

"The character of any association is derived from and determined by the character of its members. A thousand Quakers will not make an effective infantry battalion, nor a thousand bookmakers an effective anti-gambling society. The impossibility of gathering grapes from thistles is not altered even by dubbing a thistle field a vineyard. And since the League is a collection of governments, its character and its work depend inevitably upon the nature of those governments. Its collective will is formed by their individual wills. It must in practice be an instrument of their policies."

Or, to quote Lord Cecil again:

"The task of the League is to destroy war—a task of enormous difficulty. It certainly cannot be accomplished at a single stroke or in a few years. It will need all our energies, all our courage, and all our faith. The first step is to get rid of the notion that it is lawful for one nation to make war on another at its own will and pleasure. That step has been taken so far as all members of the League of Nations are concerned. It is implied in the Covenant, and has been definitely expressed more than once in resolutions of the Assembly to the effect that 'aggressive' war is an international crime."

The League of Nations' membership of forty or fifty nations includes all the great nations of the world with the exception of Russia and the United States. For eight years the leading statesmen of these nations have been assembling around the conference table and exchanging views with the utmost frankness. They are learning each others' viewpoint. They have striven to find common ground of agreement, and to develop formulas acceptable to all and upon which common action may be taken. In this manner many old prejudices and suspicions have been wiped away, and a spirit of goodwill and a readiness to co-operate engendered.

The League of Nations is, above all, a powerful educational influence leading the peoples of all races, colors and creeds to think along lines of peace rather than of war. And that, after all, is the main essential—the development of a peace consciousness, a real desire for peace on the part of the masses of the people, everywhere. Only so will war be utterly destroyed.

Chair boy: "What made you give up singing in the choir?"
Former Colleague: "I was absent one Sunday and someone asked if the organ had been mended."

Lewis: "What kind of people are the Bordens?"
Roberts: "Usual kind. They go everywhere, know everything, and owe everybody!"

Sour Stomach

Just a tasteless dose of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in water. That is an alkali, effective, yet harmless. It has been the standard antacid for 50 years among physicians everywhere. One spoonful will neutralize at once many times its volume in acid. It is the right way, the quick, pleasant and efficient way to kill the excess acid. The stomach becomes sweet, the pain ceases.

You are happy again in five minutes. Don't depend on crude methods. Employ the best way yet evolved in all the years of searching. That is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist.

Observations Of Hudson Strait

Aerial Work To Be Continued During Spring Break-Up

Terminal facilities at Fort Churchill should be completed by 1930, Alex. Johnson, Deputy Minister of Marine, stated in Montreal. Aerial observations of ice conditions in Hudson Strait are being continued. Mr. Johnson said, and particular attention will be given to the movements of ice during the spring break-up, to determine the earliest date it will be possible to sail a ship through the bottle-neck passage between Hudson Bay and the Atlantic.

ARE YOU RUN DOWN?

All That Is Needed Is a Tonic To Build Up the Blood

There are many people who have been semi-invalids so long that they accept their condition as a life burden. They have endured nervousness, broken sleep and a generally run-down feeling so long that they have given up hope of again enjoying good health. In most of these cases a well chosen diet, fresh air and a tonic to build up the blood would do wonders. And as a blood-building tonic no other medicine can compare with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. There is scarcely a spot in Canada where you will not find some formerly ailing person who has found new health through the use of this medicine. The experience of Mrs. Thomas Ahearn, St. Malo, Que., bears out these statements. She says: "I have the greatest reason to be thankful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me. I was in a very weak and run-down condition. Frequently I would faint and my legs would swell badly. It was almost impossible to do any housework. It seemed as if my blood had turned to water. In this weak and despondent condition I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A few boxes proved that they were helping me, but I continued taking the pills until I had used a dozen boxes, by which time I found myself a completely restored woman, able to do my work without fatigue, a better appetite and a sense of cheerfulness, where before I had been despondent. For all this, thanks to the health-giving qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

If you are feeling run-down, give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial and new health will be yours. You can get the pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Empire Marketing Board

Campaign In Old Country To Create Demand For Empire Products

The Empire Marketing Board is carrying on a most useful work in endeavoring to educate the purchasing public of the Old Land in products of the Empire. One of the striking methods used is a series of illustrated advertisements depicting typical scenes in connection with marketing and transportation of various products from distant parts of the Empire.

Two striking advertisements recently issued deal with apples from Canada, and are calculated to bring very forcefully to one's attention the excellent qualities of this imported Canadian fruit. No better method could be desired for creating a demand for this product of Canadian orchards, and should materially assist in stimulating trade within the Empire.

Support Canadian Literature

Canadian Books, By Canadian Authors, Printed In Canada

The Carillon Book Club, of Canada, have inaugurated a plan to furnish the reading public of Canada with books by Canadian authors, printed by Canadian workmen on paper made in Canada. They have received an option on the output of a Canadian publishing house, and as soon as each book comes from the press they will be sent postpaid to members of the book club. The annual subscription rate is $10 per year, and this pays for six new books, which will be sent to members as soon as printed and at intervals of two months. This is not a money making proposition, the main object being to provide the people of Canada with good, wholesome books by well-known Canadian writers. Mr. C. C. Knight, Exchange Building, Ottawa, is the president of the club, and by writing to him, full particulars of the plan will be gladly furnished.

Sweet and palatable, Mother Graves' Worm Expeller is acceptable to children, and it does its work surely and promptly.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

GERMAN SOUR BEEF

2 cups water.
1/2 cup lemon juice.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
1/2 teaspoon pepper.
1 large onion.
1 carrot.
2 pounds cheap cut of beef.
Cut onion in thin slices; cut carrot in strips; add water, lemon juice, salt and pepper, and pour over the beef, and leave over night. Drain meat; put in small agate pan; dredge meat with flour, and put in hot oven until flour is brown. Add one cup of the water in which meat was soaked, and cover closely. Bake slowly, and, when half done, add vegetables, drained from water, and continue the cooking, adding more liquid, as needed. When tender, remove to serving-dish, and thicken gravy, of which there should be one cup, with two tablespoons flour, mixed with two tablespoons cold liquid. Add, if desired, one-fourth cup sour cream. Put vegetables around the beef, and serve gravy in a sauceboat.
The lemon juice helps very much to make tough meats tender.

NEW YORK SALAD

4 slices pineapple.
1/2 cup celery.
1/2 cup nuts chopped.
2 oranges.
Cream mayonnaise.
Lettuce.
Arrange slices of pineapple on nests of lettuce leaves. Cut celery in slender strips, one and one-half inches long, and mix with nut meats. Pile in centre of pineapple, and garnish with four sections of orange, free from membrane, laid symmetrically on pineapple. Pass dressing separately.

PRIZE WINNERS OF SWALWELL 'SPIEL

The Swalwell bonspiel was held on Feb. 7, 8 and 9 and turned out a complete success, the ice holding out in a way which surprised those who had no previous experience of our rink. Just a few games were played the first day on ice which might be called tough.

The eight visiting rinks, together with our own eight, allowed the ideal draw of sixteen and from the time of the start of the bonspiel to the finish there was no let up, curling proceeding night and day without intermission.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FEBRUARY 19

TWO MIRACLES OF POWER

Golden Text: "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

Lesson: Mark 4:35-5:20.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 104; 1-8.

Explanations and Comments

1. The Storm, 4:35-37.—On the day that Jesus spoke many parables (our last lesson), he said at evening to his disciples, "Let us go over unto the other side," for he would escape the multitudes and rest. They took him with them in the boat, even as he was. What an insight into the humanness of Jesus that little phrase—even as he was—gives us! The day had severely taxed His physical strength, and He was tired out. He needed rest even as do we. The boat had been his pulpit, and when his discourse was ended and the disciples set sail from the shore, he sank down in the stern and fell asleep.

"What strikes us here is that he had learned to relax—to use the language of today. No sooner was His work done, than He composed Himself to sleep, and as comfortably as possible He used the cushion as His pillow. Some people break down because they have never learned to relax. Their work done, they cannot rest. Their minds are still busy. If we are to work to the full, we must learn to drop the yoke swiftly and to rest with both mind and body. Jesus is an example in this also."—R. C. Gillie.

Suddenly there arose a great windstorm, and drove the waves into the boat so that it began to fill. There have always been sudden and violent storms on the Sea of Galilee.

KELLOGG HAS A KIND MESSAGE FOR CANADIANS

Ottawa.—"With no Imperial designs, with no wish for the territory of any other country, with a common history, common hopes and aspirations, we have in the past and we will in the future adjust our difficulties by peaceful means. If we have mutual acquaintance with each other's institutions, respect for each other's rights, tolerance and patience, there is no question which cannot and will not be adjusted between us."

In these words Hon. Frank B. Kellogg, Secretary of State for the United States, expressed to the Canadian people the feeling of Americans towards this and other countries in a banquet here, tendered in his honor by the Prime Minister of Canada, Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

Proposing the toast to Mr. Kellogg, the Prime Minister expressed the appreciation of Canadians at the honor done this country when Hon. Mr. Phillips was selected as first minister to Canada.

"We felt at the time he came," said Mr. Mackenzie King, "knowing his career at Washington and abroad, that we had every reason to extend to him a warm welcome. Now that he has been among us for some months, we feel we can extend to Americans generally the same welcome, due to the representation which Mr. Phillips has given us of the United States."

Replying to the toast, Mr. Kellogg declared President Coolidge had specially commissioned him to extend to the Government and the people of Canada his very best wishes and most sincere regards and also to express his thanks for the visit of the Governor-General and the Prime Minister. He expressed thanks for the reception accorded him, a "reception that far exceeded his anticipations." He was pleased to believe this was expressive of Canada's sentiments towards the United States.

"I think an event of surpassing importance to Canada, to the whole British Empire, and to the United States has occurred during my term of office as Secretary of State," said Mr. Kellogg, "the appointment of the first minister from the Dominion of Canada to the United States, and the appointment of the first United States minister to Canada. I feel this was a notable step between the British Empire and the United States—another link formed in our international relations making for more intimate acquaintance and facilitating the adjustment of the many questions arising between Canada and the United States."

Mr. Kellogg touched upon the gift of Canada to the American people of the memorial in Arlington cemetery, commemorating the sacrifice of the American-born soldiers who served and gave their lives in the Canadian armies.

"There is in each country a strong, nationalistic feeling," said Mr. Kellogg, "you on your part of loyalty to your country and to your great Empire; we to our country. We are rivals in all those accomplishments which make great nations—in economic, scientific and educational developments; but it is rivalry without bitterness, a rivalry which tends to enhance the development of both countries. You have not grown, and developed less because the United States has grown and developed with you. Rather, our efforts have supplemented each other."

Mr. Kellogg made reference to the long peace between Canada and the United States and declared that with tolerance and patience there was no question which could not and would not be adjusted. Experience, however, had shown that war in any part of the world could not fail to affect all nations.

"We are desirous of promoting peace. We should therefore lend our influence in every possible way consistent with our sovereign rights and institutions to aid in the advancement of peace," he declared.

Water, land and air are now used regularly for traffic between Detroit and Cleveland.

Again President Of National Dairy Council

J. A. Caulder Unanimously Re-Elected By That Organization

Regina.—J. A. Caulder, retiring president of the National Dairy Council, was unanimously re-elected by that organization, when it held its first meeting of the year.

Mr. Caulder suggested in his address that it would be best to elect some eastern member to the presidency, as the important matters coming before the council this year, such as the revision of the Australian and New Zealand preferential tariff on butter, could be more efficiently handled by some one in close touch with the Ottawa headquarters of the council. He was, however, overruled by the other members.

Too Busy For War

U.S. Occupied With Domestic Affairs Says J. A. Spender

London.—Citizens of the United States are too busy with their own domestic affairs to dream of war, J. A. Spender, former editor of the Westminster Gazette, declared in a statement concerning his recent trip to the United States. He said he thought that officially there was a certain chill in the relations between Great Britain and the United States because of the results of the recent Geneva naval conference, but that this official chill was not reflected by the people of the United States, who feel goodwill for Great Britain.

Would Purchase Alaska

Matter Is Discussed By Members Of B.C. Legislature

Victoria.—The resolution of H. E. Kergin, Liberal, Atlin, suggesting that negotiations be opened with the United States for the acquisition by Canada of the Alaska Panhandle, was discussed in the Legislature here. The resolution requests the Dominion Government to take up the matter in an effort to arrive at an amicable agreement between the two countries. Debate on the motion was adjourned.

The history of the acquisition of the Alaskan territory by the United States was reviewed, together with the claims of Canada for the territory along the mainland of British Columbia by Mr. Kergin, and by Ian Mackenzie, Liberal, Vancouver.

Mr. Mackenzie said that recently the League of Nations had been responsible of the settling of many boundaries in Europe which differed materially from what they had been, that it was reasonable to suppose the question of the Alaskan Panhandle might be adjusted in the light of recent ideas as to equity among nations.

Canada, he said, could afford in fact, to pay for this stretch of land as much as the United States paid Russia for the whole of Alaska, if this was necessary.

May Be Acquired By Manitoba

Ottawa.—If the province of Manitoba wants the Seven Sister Falls on the Winnipeg River, in Eastern Manitoba, it can have them, and in any event the province will get preference in this respect before any private interests, states Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior.

Discontinue Secret Service

Protest Showing Of Edith Cavell Film

Might Embitter Relations With England Says German Government

Berlin.—The German government is making protests against the showing of a motion picture built on the career and execution of the English nurse, Edith Cavell. The foreign office has issued this statement:

"The German ambassador at London and the German minister at Brussels are making all efforts to prevent the 'Nurse Cavell' film being shown to the public, their standpoint being such a film can only revive painful memories and embitter relations between the countries."

It was remarked that the film version of Edith Cavell's execution differs from the German official account. The official account contains nothing about a German officer having shot her to death with his revolver or about a German soldier in the firing squad having refused to obey the order to fire.

Memorial To Earl Haig

Premier Baldwin Has Suggested Erection Of Public Monument

London.—Premier Baldwin, in a glowing eulogy of the late Field Marshal Earl Haig, in the House of Commons, moved that the King be requested to order the erection of a public monument to the field marshal as an expression of the state's attitude.

Premier Baldwin's motion was carried after Ramsay MacDonald, Labor Leader, who associated himself with Mr. Baldwin's tribute, moved an unsuccessful amendment to the Premier's motion, whereby a committee should be appointed to consider the best form of memorial, in view of the field marshal's concern for the welfare of ex-service men, their widows and dependents.

Urge Harsh Measures

B.C. Council Of Women Recommend Lash For Drug Peddlars

Victoria.—Resolutions along social lines were adopted at the annual meeting of the Provincial Council of Women in session here.

One urged an amendment to the Opium and Drug Act of 1923, so that the offenders against the act might be punished with the lash. Copies of communications from the Hon. A. M. Manson, British Columbia Attorney-General, were read in connection with the discussion. One of these letters to the Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, recommended the lash for such cases and noted that "the problem is probably more acute in British Columbia and Quebec than in other provinces."

May Reject Offer

Edmonton.—That the Alberta Government is not favorably inclined toward the Canadian National-Canadian Pacific offers for the taking over of the northern provincial railways and intends to recommend to the Legislature against acceptance of the offers was the announcement made by Premier Brownlee in the House here.

Quebec Sports Big Attraction

Beginning end of December and running until the third week of March and featuring the Eastern International Dog-sled Derby, the Quebec City Winter sports is a magnet that brings the tourists from near and far. Harry Moore, of New Jersey, and Mrs. Moore, taking a bob-sled run down the Duferin Terrace just outside the Chateau Frontenac where they stayed over the New Year's holiday with a distinguished party from that State.

WESTERN DAIRY CONVENTION IS A BIG SUCCESS

Regina.—Reaching a high mark in attendance, the Western Canada Dairy Convention, proved one of the most successful and profitable gatherings held in the west for some time.

J. J. Cochrane, Kerrobert, conducted the producers' session of the convention when the importance of fodder crops in milk production was discussed by the delegates. Varying opinions as to the value of corn as a fodder crop were expressed during the discussion. It was apparent that some of the delegates had found corn too expensive a crop owing to the difficulty of getting it cut during the farmers' busy season.

G. G. Perrissin, North Battleford, gave an interesting address on "The Influence of Our Boys and Girls in the Dairy Industry."

W. J. Cowie, Moose Jaw, gave the producers some facts and figures that revealed the real progress in scientific production in the Moose Jaw district under the guidance of the Moose Jaw Herd Improvement Association.

Professor L. M. Winters, animal husbandry department of the University of Saskatchewan, was accorded warm applause at the close of his informative paper on "Udder diseases and Care of Cows During the Dry Period."

Coincident with the producers' session a special session of manufacturers was held, addresses on technical subjects relating to butter production being given by internationally known experts.

Dr. E. G. Hood, chief of the dairy division of the Federal department of agriculture, gave an interesting paper on "Further Studies on Surface Taints and a Modified Score Card for Exhibition Butter."

Professor O. F. Hunziker, Chicago, spoke on the subject of "Butter Manufacture from Sour Cream." He stated it was better to concentrate on keeping cream fresh than to find means of making good butter from sour cream. When cream was permitted to sour before it left the farm, he said, it invariably imparted a bad flavor to the butter and also had a detrimental effect on the cans containing it.

Producers and manufacturers came together again at a luncheon under the auspices of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists. Miss Helen Campbell, Ottawa, of the dairy branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture, spoke of the educational work being done to increase the consumption of milk and its products in Canada. Consumption in Canada was high enough to encourage them to further effort and low enough to be a challenge to increased effort, she said.

Propose Pension For Veterans

Ottawa.—Alfred Speakman, U.F.A., Red Deer, will propose in the House of Commons a resolution calling on the Government to consider the advisability of introducing this session such legislation as would provide for the payment of pensions to all former members of the Canadian expeditionary forces who are totally incapacitated, even when attributable to war service cannot be proven in such cases.

Fire Destroys Historic Inn

Niagara Falls, Ont.—The old Robin Hood Tavern in Stamford Township, the Niagara District's oldest house of entertainment, has been totally destroyed by fire. Two huge brick fire places at either end of the building are now all that remain of the historic old inn, built 102 years ago.

Reception To Canadian Farmers

London.—The Canadian farmers, who have been touring Great Britain and Denmark under the auspices of the Canadian National Railways, were received by Premier Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin in the cabinet room at No. 10 Downing Street, the official residence of the premier.

More than half the people in the world live in Asia, on less than one-fourth of the habitable portion of the earth's surface.

Asbestos, Link Between Vegetable And Mineral Kingdom, Is The Only Rock That Can Be Woven

Asbestos is one of the most remarkable substances in nature. This strange mineral, of which 80 to 90 per cent. of the world's supply comes from the province of Quebec, has been referred to as the link between the vegetable and mineral kingdom. A mineralogical vegetable possessing the curious properties found in both. It is the only rock which can be woven into fireproof garments and moulded into instruments impervious to flame. It is sometimes referred to as "mineral cotton" or "mineral flax."

But let an American periodical tell the rest of the story of asbestos, says the Department of the Interior, through its Natural Resources Intelligence Service, adding that it is particularly appropriate to quote an American article in view of the fact that the principal outlet for Canadian asbestos is in the United States, that country importing almost $7,000,000 worth out of a total exports amounting to $10,674,000 in last fiscal year. The writer of the article referred to, Orville B. Kneen, tells the history of asbestos and its manifold uses. With asbestos armor and tools, he says, men can fight the fiercest fires known. That is why, when oil-wells have flared, asbestos clothes and shoes have been rushed by air mail as far as the Wyoming fields. That is why even the messenger dogs of forest rangers in California are clad in asbestos coats to defy the timber flames. He goes on:

"Some have thought the three who survived Nebuchadnezzar's fiery furnace were clad in asbestos. Ancient writers tell of a 'stone which is carved and woven to form handkerchiefs' for emperors, the fabrics 'cleansed by casting them into the fire.' Corpses of royal Romans were sometimes wrapped in asbestos that their ashes might be preserved after cremation."

"An ancient Greek writer tells of a lamp of gold for the statue of Athens with a wick of unburnable 'karpasian flax.' The Greek word asbestos means unextinguishable. Eskimos, finding asbestos in Labrador, have long used it for lamp-wicks."

"Marco Polo's countrymen only laughed when he brought tales, in 1295 A.D., of Tartars who had clothes made from the skin or hair of a mythical salamander, which lived only in fire. Polo learned that the material was really 'earth-flax,' mined in the Ural Mountains, as it is today, dried, powdered and woven. Magicians, he said, cleansed it in fire. Four centuries before, the Emperor Charlemagne performed the same 'miracle' for his guest with his table-cloth."

"The mystical material, 'fibrous and crystalline, elastic and brittle, heavy as rock in its crude estate, yet as light as thistledown when treated mechanically,' has withstood the heat and enormous pressure of volcanic fires and earth adjustment, apparently without alteration. Changes in temperature can not make it expand or contract. Since the earth was in its infancy, these veins of silky fibres have seemingly survived when the hardest rock has worn or melted away."

"You are," a well-known asbestos man told me, "almost surrounded with asbestos. Modern comfort and convenience would be inconceivable without this mineral curiosity. Of course, iron holders, mats and stands, gas burners and gas logs are commonly known, but not many are aware that asbestos composition floors also are being laid, unburnable and ever-wearing."

"Your stoves and ovens are so efficient because of the same heat-wave resistant. If you started to uncover all the asbestos in your home you would have to take apart the electric wires, all your electric appliances, phonograph records, radio parts, even your telephone mouthpiece. Few common materials are fire, or even heat-proof. Only asbestos stands between us and the fire demon."

"Heat pipes in modern houses are covered with asbestos mixed with magnesia, or a similar substance, saving as much as 150 pounds of coal per square foot of boiler surface. Because the majority of homes are still trying to 'heat all outdoors,' however,

$300,000,000 worth of coal is still being wasted."

In power plants, Mr. Kneen goes on to quote, every hot piston stem, steam joint pipe, strap and valve has its asbestos packing and gaskets. We could not begin to retain and handle these enormous but efficient forces without asbestos and graphite. Even electric switchboards, insulators and panels are molded from it, while tiny fibres are made into lamp filaments. You can live in a completely fire-proof home, if you desire, made of asbestos lumber and roofed with asbestos shingles or tiles. Not long ago a whole train-load of fire-proof houses were shipped to a firm in St. Louis, for its employees. You can buy asbestos tapestries, rugs, table-covers, and even rope-ladders. He goes on:

"Chief of asbestos parts in motor-cars are the brake linings, for which we have to thank C. W. Raymond. Back in 1905, while Ford was still experimenting, Raymond tried mohair, leather, and other materials, none of which would stand up under the high heat and pressure of a friction brake. Asbestos with woven brass wire solved the problem, and Raymond patented the brake lining, 75,000,000 feet of which steps 20,000,000 cars today."

"Our safe steel railroad coaches were once thought impracticable, because of the difficulty of insulating against cold and rumbling. Now cattle hair between layers of asbestos keeps them at vaporless temperatures. Ships' bulkheads are made fireproof with asbestos boards."

"Asbestos is just beginning to take to the air, around the motors and as insulation. But tank covers would save accidental fires, and asbestos mail-bags would save letters as readily as the asbestos suit used to save the 'human comet' of bygone country fairs. He had gasoline poured over him and lighted, and then plunged in a blaze of glory into the tank beneath."

Asbestos was found in the present producing region in the eastern townships of Quebec in 1877. The most important deposits are those at Black Lake, Thetford, Robertsonville and East Broughton. Canadian asbestos, which is chrysotile, or serpentine variety, is of the finest quality, soft, silky and of great tensile strength, consequently it is in great demand for all kinds of asbestos products, but particularly for asbestos textiles. It is mined in open pits and the finest long-fibred material sorted by hand or "hand comber," while to recover the asbestos from the smaller veins the rock is crushed and separated mechanically by elaborate processes. A wide variety of grades are produced from the valuable long-fibred "crude" which occurs in relatively small amounts that may be worth $500 or more per ton, to the shortest mill fibre and asbestic sand used for wall plaster, worth but a small fraction of that amount.

Asbestos production in Canada in 1927 according to recent preliminary estimates amounted to 272,923 tons valued at $10,425,539. That represents one twenty-third of the entire value of Canada's mineral production, not a bad showing for one comparatively small section in one province.

New Apples Receive Recognition

Melba Apple Is Said To Possess Excellent Qualities

Varieties of apples originated at the Experimental Farms received unusual recognition during the past year. To a collection displayed by the Horticultural Division at the International Horticultural Exhibition at Paris, there was awarded the silver gilt medal diploma. The Melba apple, a fine summer variety with quality as good as the McIntosh, was given high recognition on both sides of the Atlantic. The American Pomological Society awarded it its highest prize in the form of the silver Wilder medal. At the International Horticultural Exhibition at Brussels, in Belgium, it was given the gold medal diploma. This variety is one of the first of the Farms' productions, and is now listed in nursery catalogues.

Canadian People Demanding That Dominion Nationality Be Recognized In Census Reports

Indications have been given that during the present session of parliament, legislative assent will be given to the almost unanimous demand of the Canadian people that Dominion nationality be recognized in census reports and vital statistics.

It is difficult to understand why such a measure has been delayed as long as it has.

Except for the sanction of a much longer period of years, Canadian nationality is just as definite a thing as English nationality. And even the most raucous-voiced jingo would hardly propose to classify Englishmen as Trojans, Romans, Danes, Gauls, Belgae, Angles, Saxons, Britons, Greeks, Phoenicians and Normans in the modern English census. And yet all these races had a share in the blending of English blood.

It is absurd and vicious to insist on classifying Canadians by their parent race name when a sense of national unity and national consciousness are the vital conceptions that Canada needs most.

And, aside from the sense of it, there is a parliamentary precedent that should be sufficient warrant for the use of the term "Canadian" in official documents.

The Immigration act makes use of the term "Canadian" as distinctive of nationality. If the word suits the purposes of the Immigration act, it should suit the purposes of the census and the vital statistics.

To refuse to recognize Canadian nationality is to submit to the jingo. To recognize Canadian nationality is to put this nation on a higher plane of dignity and self-respect.—Vancouver Sun.

Liquor Treaty Ineffective

Unable To Prevent Smuggling Of Liquor Into U.S. From Canada

The treaty between Canada and the United States for the suppression of smuggling is ineffective in its present form to prevent the smuggling of liquor into the United States from the Dominion. This was the declaration made to the Royal Customs Commission, of which Mr. Justice J. T. Brown, Regina, was chairman, in the course of a conference between the commission and officers of the United States Government in Washington in August last. Minutes of the conference were tabled in the House of Commons by the prime minister.

Statistics concerning the quantity of liquor being smuggled into the United States from Canada, show, the Canadian Commission was informed, conclusively that the treaty in its present form is "ineffective to prevent the smuggling of liquor into the United States from Canada even though the letter and spirit of the treaty and of the regulations issued thereunder are faithfully observed by the American and Canadian authorities concerned."

Amery Travels 55,000 Miles

Fifty-five thousand odd miles in twenty-two days! That will be the record of Lieut.-Colonel the Right Honorable L. C. M. S. Amery, M.P., Secretary of State for the Dominions, when he returns to England after his Dominion-wide tour on February 11. During this period Colonel Amery has visited South Africa, Australia, New Zealand and Canada, and has delivered upwards of 380 speeches all told.

His speeches have covered a wide range and have been enthusiastically received by monster audiences throughout. He has been particularly happy in his references to the romance of the British Empire and in his remarks concerning the economic position of the component parts of the British Empire, while in speeches touching on the Empire Marketing Board he has broken new ground with most satisfactory results.

In every speech delivered by Colonel Amery in Canada he stressed the findings of the Imperial Conference in 1926, which made known explicitly to the world, he stated, that every one of the Dominions was an equal on new ground with most satisfactory results.

Colonel Amery landed in Canada from the S.S. "Aorangi" at Victoria on January 6, and sailed from Saint John, N.B., on February 3, on the Canadian Pacific liner, the "Montclare," for Liverpool. For the journey across Canada, where stops were made at 18 important centres, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company placed a special train at the disposal of the distinguished visitor and staff. On arrival at Banff, Alberta, the capital city of the Canadian Pacific Rockies, Colonel Amery threw all cares of state aside and spent all the day of January 12 enjoying winter sports. The Colonel is an expert skier and took great pleasure in overcoming the difficulties of Tunnel Mountain. Throughout the tour Mrs. Amery, herself a Canadian girl, accompanied her gifted husband. Others to make the trip were Capt. W. Brass, M.P. for the Clitheroe Division of Lancashire and Parliamentary Under-Secretary for Health; G. G. Whiskard, Assistant Secretary at the Dominions office, and G. Huxley, of the Empire Marketing Board.

CHAPTER XIX

One day in August, when the train came in, the conductor ran into the station and shouted to the operator, "Say Ted, there's a war in Europe! What do you know about that?"

Ted took his pipe from his mouth and spat at the red stove. "Quit your kiddin'," he said briefly.

"The conductor handed him the paper. 'What do you make of that?' he said, as he pointed to the staring headlines. 'Maybe you'll believe me when you read that?'"

The operator grudgingly admitted that there seemed to be more in it than he had at first believed. "Well, what's it all about?" he asked the conductor; "whose row is it anyway?"

The conductor tried to explain. "Tain't any of our business, is it, if someone shoots an arch-duke," said the operator. "Isn't it about all some of these arch-dukes is good for? Are they scarce of them?"

He was dusting off his desk with a large handkerchief as he spoke, and that was a sure sign of mental activity.

"It looks bad, Ted," the conductor said, gravely; "there's lots of excitement in town—fellows joining up, bands playing and all. I know some of the boys that are just itching to go, but I assure you it isn't me. Well, so long, Ted; I guess we should worry—it's a long way from Northern Alberta."

Old Sim, the night watchman, took it more seriously than anyone in Eagle Mines. "Wars," he said to Helmi and Mrs. McMann when he came in for his supper that night "is inevitable. That's a big word, Helmi, and means can't be helped. They come ever so often, and kill a lot of people and maim and hurt a lot, make a lot of debt and trouble. Everyone in the

Large Financial Outlay

Over Twenty-Nine Millions Spent On Road Improvement Last Year

George W. Yates, Acting Federal Commissioner of Highways, reports that for the year ending March 31, 1927, the mileage completed under the Canada Highways Act was 7,136, with 872 under improvement.

In addition to the work Federally subsidized the nine provinces have carried on extensive programs of highway construction and improvement, with the result that a total of 5,788 miles of road were improved during the season of 1926, at an outlay of $29,585,000, made up of Federal, Provincial and Municipal expenditures. The total amount spent on the improvement and maintenance of Canadian roads during 1926 was approximately $15,500,000.

There were 24,708 miles of highway approved as being eligible to participate in the $20,000,000 Federal highway subsidy. So far of this amount $18,775,604 has been paid over to the provinces.

This year will complete the Federal subsidy. It is unlikely there will be a further Federal grant.

Druggist Gave Her Very Good Advice

Miss Ruth Horowitz, Bronx, N. Y., writes: "Having been troubled with indigestion caused by constipation for several months, my druggist advised a purely vegetable laxative pill. I can safely say that since I am taking them, and only one each night, I feel like myself again and can eat most anything without fear of an attack."

our men to fight? We won't; it's the Old Country's fight—not Canada's."

It was a long speech for Helmi to make, and she had to stop her sweeping to do it.

"Anyway, Jack is safe up there on the Nehanna—he will not hear of it until it's over maybe," said Sam.

Helmi looked at him gratefully. "Will you have tea or coffee tonight in shiny bottle?" she said.

Eagle Mines, composed largely of Americans, was not greatly disturbed by the war. The mine boss, although a Canadian, expressed the general view when he said, "Let the people who started this thing finish it. It's not our funeral. We'll keep our heads down and mine coal—that's our business."

The men heartily concurred in this, and when the price of coal went up, and their wages had a corresponding increase, they were not disposed to quarrel with the cause.

"Good old war," said Peter Hamilton, the time-keeper, as he counted out the men's money at the end of October; "Long may she wave."

The first disturbing glimpse that the residents of Eagle Mines had, was the coming of an English homesteader from up the river. He was but slightly known to the people because he came in only twice a year to buy his supplies, and never lingered for a friendly chat like other people, and therefore was not liked by the few people who had seen him. Their diagnosis of his case was that he was just a little off. A man who lives alone, raises dogs, takes pictures, gets no mail, and talks to on one except when it cannot be avoided, has no right to expect that people will consider him a sane person. The residents of Eagle Mines when referring to him at all called him, "the crazy Englishman."

It was a dull gray day in early November that he came to town and drew up in front of Simpson's store. He sprang out of his buckboard and ran into the store excitedly. "The Empire is at war!" he shouted; "Did you know it? A man passing by my place showed me the paper. Did you know it? Why didn't you send me word?"

Jim Simpson wrinkled his nose. "How did I know you cared?" he asked, replacing a prune which had fallen to the floor.

The other man raised his voice almost to a shout. "Cared? Cared? Don't you know what it means? It's my country—your country—it's threatened—everyone cares."

"Well, I don't," said the storekeeper, positively; "she got into this without askin' me, and she kin git out the same way."

The Englishman stood speechless. Could it be that any man living in the Empire on which the sun never sets could utter such words and live? Something of the benumbed amazement which fell on Rip Van Winkle when he returned to find good King George gone, and no one sorry but himself, fell on him. Could it be that—but no, that was impossible. The Empire would endure as long as the sun held its course.

The Englishman had been a resident of the neighborhood for over fifteen years. Long before the opening of the mines he had come and squatted on a piece of land in another fertile valley about eight miles further up the river, going in on foot with all his possessions, a gun on his back and a dog at his heels. Beside the crooked little stream (called English River, in compliment to him) he built a shelter of boughs and began to cultivate a piece of land for his garden with a wooden hoe of his own making. He had told the people at Bannerman, which was the nearest settlement, that any man should be able to wrest a living from the soil if he had a dog for company, an axe, gun and a few seeds.

Little Helps For This Week

"He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."—Prov. xvi, 32.

If, then, you wish not to be of an angry temper, do not feed the habit; throw nothing on it which will increase it; at first keep quiet, and count the days on which you have not been angry; for the habit at first begins to be weakened, and then is completely destroyed. When you can say, "I have not been vexed today, nor the day before, nor yet on any succeeding day during two or three months, but I took care when some exciting things happened," be assured that you are in a good way.—Epictetus.

The paper understands that the diary contains frank revelations and fearless criticisms of war chiefs, statesmen, politicians and others, and is likely to involve sensational disclosures.

Cases ended in death! So a recent Canadian investigation showed. These were not cases of infectious diseases—of consumption—of typhoid! They were cases where a person had sustained some slight injury—a cut, a burn, a wire-prick—and where the wound, being thought not serious enough for careful treatment, had been neglected. Blood poisoning and death resulted. When you or your children sustain any injury, ensure against infection by applying Zam-Buk. This balm soothes the pain, stops bleeding, and by destroying all germs prevents blood poisoning, etc. Hence no time need be lost from work or pleasure by those who use Zam-Buk. ### GIVE CONFIDENCE TO YOUNG MOTHERS

By Always Keeping Baby's Own Tablets In the Home

A simple and safe remedy for the common ills of babyhood and childhood should be kept in every home where there is either a baby or a young child. Often it is necessary to give the little ones something to break up a cold, allay fever, correct sour stomach and banish the irritability that accompanies the cutting of teeth.

Experienced mothers always keep Baby's Own Tablets in the home as a safeguard against the troubles that seize their little ones so suddenly and the young mother can feel reasonably safe with a box of these Tablets at hand and ready for emergencies.

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative that act without gripping and they are absolutely guaranteed free from opiates or other harmful drugs. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A 25-cent piece dated 1876 is worth 20 cents.

A Remedy For Earache. To have the earache is to endure torture. The ear is a delicate organ and few care to deal with it, considering it work for a doctor. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil offers a simple remedy. A few drops upon a piece of lint or medicated cotton and placed in the ear will do much in relieving pain.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Wilson's Experience a Guide to Women Passing through the Change of Life

Hamilton, Ontario.—"I have taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot speak too highly of it as I was at the Change of Life and was all run-down and had no appetite. I was very weak and sick, and the pains in my back were so bad I could hardly move. I got very sad at times and thought I had not a friend on earth. I did not care if I lived or died. I was very nervous, too, and did not go out very much. A friend advised me to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I did. I am a farmer's wife, and always worked hard until lately, and was in bed for two months. I began to feel like a new woman after the first bottle and I recommend it with great success, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about your medicines, as I cannot speak too highly of them."—Mrs. EMMA WILSON, 471 Wilson Street, Hamilton, Ontario.

of the School Fair Committee and teachers were getting together and discussing the possibilities of the school fair this year. It will not be so long before spring will be setting in and the time for planting will be at hand. The children will want to know what vegetables, etc., are being classed so that they will know just what seeds to plant and there is no time like the present for this to be done. Other towns in the immediate district of Carbon have already had their School Fair meeting and Carbon does not want to be behind the times. We understand that one of the teachers and Sec. Treas. of the School Fair committee is leaving at Easter and valuable assistance will be needed in organizing for this year before she goes. Get together now. This year the new rink building ought to be available in which to hold the School Fair and there is ample room there for a large display of every item on the prize list.

A School Fair is something which is vitally important to a community and which ought to be supported by every citizen of the town, as well as the people of the county.

At this affair the children are taught to compare their field produce with others in which they associate and every year they strive to do better. And that is just what a farming community wants. We must have this competition to urge the children to do their best and find ways and means of doing so,
and the knowledge gained in doing thus lives forever after. A School Fair is the only time in which the pupils have to devote to this class of training and they should be given the opportunity to go on with this work as they have in past years.Toronto.—The Exhibition at Toance of 1,780,000, according to a rethe United States and Canada this
